

Artillery Manuals

Produced By The

The Royal School Of Artillery

Of The

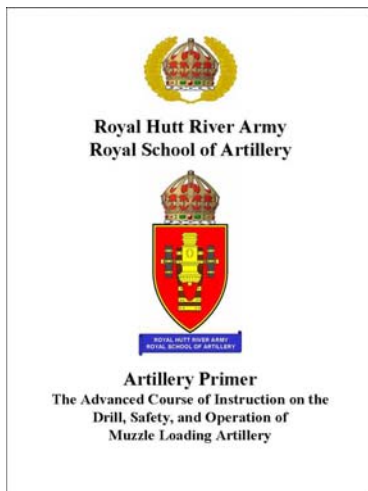

Royal Hutt River Army

Volume 1

Manual of Drill and Ceremonial – The School of the Piece
$15.00

This volume contains the drills for muzzle-loading artillery (rifled and smooth bore) and is geared for the reenactor and ceremonial artillerist. The drills are organized to show the complete sequence of events that take place with each command, as well as separate sections for each cannon crew position. This manual also includes information about the nomenclature of muzzle-loading artillery.

Volume 2

Artillery Primer – The School of the Battery
$20.00

This volume is one of the most complete sources of muzzle-loading artillery facts and information available in print, and is for those desiring command of muzzle-loading artillery units. Topics covered in this manual include deployment strategies, tactics, detailed nomenclature of muzzle-loading artillery, the history of muzzle-loading artillery, and a comprehensive glossary of muzzle-loading artillery terms and concepts.

Volume 3

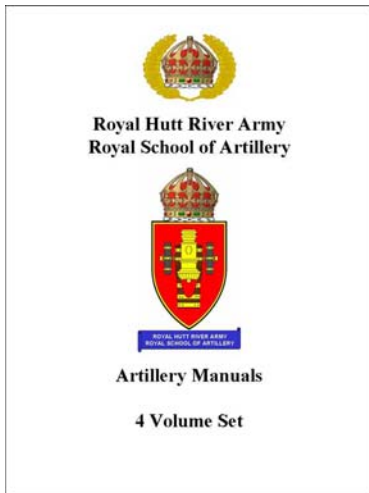

Artillery Instructors Manual
$15.00

This volume contains information about how to teach muzzle-loading artillery schools and is geared for those who wish to join the instructor corps of the Royal School of Artillery. The manual is organized to include the complete drills for the School of the Piece and the School of the Battery, as well as information to help the student become an effective instructor.

Volume 4
Artillery Testing and Certification Manual
$10.00

This volume, which is a companion to Volume 3, outlines how to test a student's knowledge of what they learned from the School of the Piece and the School of the Battery. Included are three tests of knowledge (along with the answer keys), as well as instructions for assessing skills by observation and demonstration.
