

Saint Barbara Day

4 December 2005

A Proclamation by the Chief of the Royal Artillery, Royal Hutt River Army, Hutt River Province Principality

On This Day, the celebration of the Feast of Saint Barbara, in the year of our Lord 2005, we come together to honour those who have advanced the cause of the Royal Artillery.

To that end, it gives me great pleasure to bestow upon the following named individuals the Orders of Saint Barbara Service Award. The receipt of the Orders of Saint Barbara Service Award links field artillerymen of the past and present in a brotherhood of professionalism, selfless service and sacrifice.

The Honourable Order of Saint Barbara Service Award is bestowed upon those who have rendered outstanding service to, and advanced the cause of, the field artillery and to artillerists. It gives me great pleasure to award the Honourable Order of Saint Barbara Service Award to the following individuals:

Sir David Burkhart, Earl Marshall
Admiral Sir Robert Hartnett, RHRN
Colonel Edward Rupert, RHRA

The Ancient Order of Saint Barbara Service Award is bestowed upon those who have rendered long-term, exceptional service to, and advanced the cause of, the field artillery and to artillerists. It gives me great pleasure to award the Ancient Order of Saint Barbara Service Award to the following individual:

Prince Leonard I of Hutt, Colonel-In-Chief of the Royal Artillery

In this, the first awarding of the Orders of Saint Barbara Service Award by the Royal Artillery of the Royal Hutt River Army, Hutt River Province Principality, the Royal Artillery begins a new tradition. I congratulate the recipients and look forward to sharing in their continued successes of rendering service to and advancing the cause of the field artillery and artillerists world-wide.

Signed the 4th day of December 2005

Chief of the Royal Artillery
